

Alwun House Foundation
LGBTQ: RIGHTS & JUSTICE EXHIBIT
At City of Phoenix Burton Barr Library North Gallery
3/27/17 – 4/23/17

CALL TO ARTISTS

THEME: Art that reflects life experiences the LGBTQ community and friends have endured to gain justice denied. Accepting works in all media that represent that struggle and accomplishment; family photos, weddings, anti-gay protesters, pride, and personal accomplishments. Inviting personal snapshots from amateur first time exhibitors, and professional artists.

IMAGES: Submit jpg's (hi-resolution) of each piece, for jurors' selection. Fill out this Registration form; include signed permission to exhibit. Send info to dana@alwunhouse.org. Burton Barr Library and Alwun House will print, post invites, social media, posters, and web postings. Artist may include up to five (5) jpg images for consideration.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: 2/24/17

INCLUDE: Short artist description, up to 5 image jpg's with title-media-name- and dimensions of framed images (note: must fit within 2'x9', or 4'x9' panels).

ACCEPTANCE: Artists will be notified of juror's selection, 3/6/17.

ART DELIVERY: 3/26/17. Bring to the library for hanging, 8am – 5pm. Deliver works to Hive @ Central, on the second floor. All work must be structurally and mechanically sound, and arrive ready to hang from a wire. If 3-D we've pedestals. If necessary, call to arrange your early delivery at Alwun House, 602.253.7967.
